

The following listing are methods for residents to disconnect their roof leaders from the sanitary sewer where space is available on the residential lot:

1. Disconnect roof drain from sewer above ground; install cap/cleanout on the pipe connected to the sewer lateral (below grade pipe); install an extension elbow to the downspout and install splash block for roof drain to discharge away from residence; the splash block should not be directed towards adjacent properties. Refer to below photos.

